

FAQs

General Registration and Event Questions

What is the minimum amount I need to raise to participate?

All Pullers must be registered on a team that collectively fundraises a minimum of $1,500 for eligibility to Pull.

How old do you have to be to participate?

While we do not have any age restrictions, we strongly encourage all participants to be 14 years of age or older. Participants under the age of 18 must have written consent form a parent or legal guardian on the waiver provided at Plane Pull.

I was going to participate, but now my schedule doesn't allow it. Is it possible for me to turn in my money early and still receive my earned Incentives?

All donations can be mailed to our state office or turned in online at raceforinclusion.org. Please send an email to raceforinclusion@sofl.org to make arrangements to receive your items.

How do I change my t-shirt size?

Log into your Participant Account on raceforinclusion.org and click "Profile" from the left side column. Click "Edit User Survey Questions" to change your t-shirt size.

Can I pick up my wristband and Race goodies before the event?

Select races have the opportunity for early registration. For more information on your chosen Race, please contact raceforinclusion@sofl.org or visit your location's homepage at raceforinclusion.org.

How can I register for two or more events?

Each Race is set-up as a separate event in the Fundraising Hub, so each registration has to be set up separately, as well. You will need to create a unique username and password for each event.

Donations and Fundraising Questions

Who should checks be made out to?

Checks should be made out to Special Olympics Florida. Please include the Participant's name in the memo area of the check so the donation can be accredited appropriately online.

I'm trying to make an online donation, but it doesn't seem to be going through. What can I do?

Please try a different browser or open an incognito Window and try again. If you're still having issues, please send an email to raceforinclusion@sofl.org and we will be happy to help.

I have received additional donations, but the event is over. What should I do with them?

Donations to the Race for Inclusion are accepted any time of the year. They simply need to be mailed to our state office.

Please make checks out to Special Olympics Florida and be sure that Race for Inclusion and the participant's name are clearly indicated so donations can be correctly credited.

Do you accept corporate matching gifts?

Matching gifts from your company are happily accepted and encouraged. However, if you do not have the physical check in-hand prior to the event, it cannot be counted toward your fundraising total.

How long does it take for checks that are mailed in on my behalf to show up in my fundraising total?

Generally speaking, contributions will be entered no more than 5-7 days after they are received by Special Olympics Florida.

I have received cash donations and I want to update the fundraising total on my webpage to include these. How can I do this?

All off-line donations must be added by the staff at Special Olympics Florida. All donations – cash, check, money order – received via mail or in-person should be mailed to the following address for processing. Please allow 5-7 days from receipt of the donation for totals to reflect online.

What is the minimum amount my team needs to raise?

Each team is required to collectively fundraise $1,500 to participate in Race for Inclusion.

My organization would like to donate goods and services to Race for Inclusion. Do you accept prize donations?

Many cool prizes are given away to Participants year-round. If you or your business are interested in donating items, please email us at raceforinclusion@sofl.org.

Event Day

What happens if there is bad weather?

Races will take place as long as it is safe for the Participants. If there is a change to the schedule, we will post the information on the Race for Inclusion website, as well as email all registered Participants. There are currently no rain dates scheduled for any of our state-wide races. If an event is cancelled, participants who raise the minimum support will still receive incentive items.

Where should I park?

For specific event location information, visit your location's homepage.

I registered online. Do I still need to visit the Registration Table?

Yes! You must check-in upon arrival so you can pick up your Puller wristband, team t-shirts, and hand in any off-line donations.

I didn't register online. Can I still Pull?

Of course! The more the merrier! You and your team can register to Pull on-site the morning of the event. You will be required to make a $1,500 donation to be eligible to Pull. Your team t-shirts, plaque, and photos may not be available same-day, but we will deliver them to you post-event.

What should I wear to the Race?

Costumes are highly encouraged! Every Race offers an award to the Best Team Costume and Best Individual Costume. Most Participants choose a costume that fits the season's theme, though it is not mandatory.

I am a first-time participant. Can you tell me what I should expect when I arrive?

You should expect a very large crowd and lots of energy. You can listen to music, enjoy food and drink, and mingle with hundreds of participants and spectators as you gear up for the race to begin.

Will my photo be taken?

We will have photographers at each event. By attending a Race, you are agreeing that your likeness may be used in future marketing materials. However, if you see a photographer nearby, you may request that they avoid taking your photo. Additionally, if a photo of you is posted online by after the event, you may email us at race-forinclusion@sofl.org to have it removed.

Is there a charge to get into the event if I am just coming to watch and cheer on a participant?

Race for Inclusion events are free and open to the general public to attend.
