FAQs

General Registration and Event Questions

What is the minimum amount I need to raise to participate?

There is no minimum amount needed to raise to participate! The registration fee for individuals 16+ is $35, 15 - 4 is $15, and 3 and below is $0.

How old do you have to be to participate?

We do not have any age restrictions for participants. However, participants under the age of 18 must have written consent form a parent or legal guardian on the waiver provided at event.

I was going to participate, but now my schedule doesn't allow it. Is it possible for me to turn in my money early and still receive my earned Incentives?

All donations can be mailed to our state office or turned in online through your Team Raiser page. Please send an email to the Director of Development assigned to your race to make arrangements to receive your items.

How do I change my t-shirt size?

Log into your Participant Account on raceforinclusion.org and click "Profile" from the left side column. Click "Edit User Survey Questions" to change your t-shirt size.

How can I register for two or more events?

Each Race is set-up as a separate event in the Fundraising Hub, so each registration has to be set up separately, as well. You will need to create a unique username and password for each event.

Donations and Fundraising Questions

Who should checks be made out to?

Checks should be made out to Special Olympics Florida. Please include the Participant's name in the memo of the check so the donation can be accredited appropriately online.

I'm trying to make an online donation, but it doesn't seem to be going through. What can I do?

Please try a different browser or open an incognito Window and try again. If you're still having issues, please send an email to the Development Director assigned to your race and we will be happy to help.

I have received additional donations, but the event is over. What should I do with them?

Our online donation portal remains open until the end of the year, so you can donate through the portal or can mail them to our state office.

Event Day

What happens if there is bad weather?

Races will take place as long as it is safe for the Participants. If there is a change to the schedule, we will post the information on the Race for Inclusion website, as well as email all registered Participants. There are currently no rain dates scheduled for any of our state-wide races. If an event is cancelled, participants who raise the minimum support will still receive incentive items.

Where should I park?

For specific event location information, visit your location's homepage. An email will also be sent out to all participants prior to the race.

I registered online. Do I still need to visit the Registration Table?

Yes! You must check-in upon arrival so you can pick up your t-shirt, incentives, get your race bib, and hand in any off-line donations.

I didn't register online. Can I still Race?

Of course! The more the merrier! You and can register to race on-site the morning of the event.

I am a first-time participant. Can you tell me what I should expect when I arrive?

You should expect a very large crowd and lots of energy. You can listen to music and mingle with hundreds of participants and spectators as you gear up for the race to begin. You will need to sign waivers, check-in/register, pick-up your items, and stretch, so be sure to arrive with enough time to complete those tasks.

Will my photo be taken?

We will have photographers at each event. By attending a Race, you are agreeing that your likeness may be used in future marketing materials. However, if you see a photographer nearby, you may request that they avoid taking your photo. Additionally, if a photo of you is posted online by after the event, you may email us to have it removed.

Is there a charge to get into the event if I am just coming to watch and cheer on a participant?

Race for Inclusion events are free and open to the general public to attend.
